Dear Home Owner,

Congratulations! You are taking the first step toward protecting your property and the lives of your loved ones.

Crime Prevention is everybody's job, and you are being proactive by learning how to reduce your chance of becoming a victim. While all law enforcement officers work hard at locating and locking up criminals, we need your help in reducing the opportunity for crime.

The Crime Prevention Specialist who conducts your Residential Security Risk Assessment has been well trained in all of the latest methods to reduce the likelihood of you becoming a victim. The Officer will make suggestions that will be cost effective and safeguard your home and property.

Thank you for making the investment in your safety and the protection of your family.
